

Carolyn P. Handa Teaching Award
For Excellence in Teaching Composition

Name: _____ Email: _____

Program: _____ Year of Study: _____

Please indicate which composition courses have been taught and the most recent semesters those courses have been taught.

EN101: _____

EN102: _____

EN103: _____

EN104: _____

Please include the following materials with your application:

1. CV of no more than 2 pages
 2. Teaching Philosophy of no more than 2 pages – should include a diversity statement and indicate your commitment to and application of innovative pedagogical practices in the composition classroom.
 3. A Sample Lesson Plan and/or Assignment for an EN100-level class
 4. Student Evaluations for an EN100-level class from at least 1 semester or 2 semesters at most
 5. Letter of Recommendation and Observation Notes for an EN100-level class from a teaching observation no later than the semester in which you are applying – GTAs, GAs, and graduate students cannot provide a letter of recommendation or observation notes. Observer should be a UA Department of English faculty member with at least 5 years of teaching experience.
-

Applicants should email completed application and listed materials as a single .pdf file to englishgo@ua.edu. The email subject line should read, “Completed Application for Carolyn Handa Teaching Award.”